Cancer Treatment Centers of America

Registered Onco-Cardiology Nurse/Chair for Education and Research Council

August 2014 - October 2017 (3 years 3 months)

Newnan, Ga.

My main focus was care management for our cardiology patients. Coordination with a multidisciplinary team as well as outside facilities in order to ensure high quality stress free care for our patients. Developing SWI along with policy writing. Performing literature searches to ensure highest quality care from the best evidence is being performed. When in the house supervisor role I am responsible for all floors from med surg to ICU. Also responsible for supervising our urgent care unit, clinic, infusion and at times stepping in any roles needed to provide safe evidence based care to our patients. Responsible for placing patients in rooms providing safe staffing while collaborating with a multidisciplinary team. While charge I am responsible for two floors, med surg and intermediate. While on the floor I am responsible for assessing the needs of the patient with a holistic approach on an ongoing basis, adjusting treatments based on multidisciplinary plan of care. Planning, delivering, directing, coordination and evaluation of therapeutic interventions based on the needs identified in the assessment process. Supervising of care delivered by unlicensed support staff. Providing the patient and family education in regards to the disease process, side effects of treatment and health promotion as well as supporting and reassurance. Ensuring an informed decision is being made regarding the patients therapeutic plan. Ensuring compliance with hospital policies and accrediting agencies.

Piedmont Healthcare

Registered Nurse/Charge Nurse

July 2013 - October 2014 (1 year 4 months)

Newnan

In this position I was Charge/floor nurse. Taking 6-7 patients while charging which demonstrates my time management skills, as well as, staying calm under pressure. This was on an Ortho/Surgical/Medical floor. Responsible for providing nursing care to patients from birth through the lifecycle utilizing the nursing process in accordance with Piedmont Newnan Hospital's Mission, Values, and Vision Statement; functions within the framework of the policies and procedures of the organization and demonstrates professional growth and accountability. Guides and supervises nursing staff personnel, collaborates with other health care professionals and coordinates ancillary staff in the provision of quality nursing care. Blends compassion, caring and technologically appropriate competency resulting in holistic care to the patient. I am on a surgical medical floor taking care of longer term patients with specialized training in surgical care. Responsible for care of patients from admittance to before and after surgery until discharge. Also trained in medical surgical nursing. I have great attention to detail, patience and compassion for patients and the ability to work well within a team environment. Below is a copy of an article I wrote concerning heart disease, while working here at Piedmont, that Newnan Times Herald published. Please take a minute to read it and let me know what you think.
