Experience

UW Medicine

CNO and Senior Associate Administrator, UW Medicine Harborview Medical Center

July 2019 - Present (1 year 1 month)

Seattle, Washington

Reporting to the hospital chief executive officer (CEO), responsible and accountable for executive leadership and oversight of all professional nursing practice and patient care services at Harborview Medical Center: the only designated Level I adult and pediatric trauma for Washington, Alaska, Montana, & Idaho. HMC also serves as the regional trauma and burn referral center for the WAMI region, and the disaster preparedness and control hospital for Seattle and King County.

UW Medicine is one of the top-rated academic medical systems in the world. With a mission to improve the health of the public, UW Medicine educates the next generation of physicians and scientists, leads one of the world's largest and most comprehensive medical research programs, and provides outstanding care to patients from across the globe. UW Medicine's four hospitals—Harborview Medical Center, Northwest Hospital & Medical Center, University of Washington Medical Center and Valley Medical Center—admit more than 64,000 patients each year. A network of hospital-based and outpatient clinics, including 12 UW Neighborhood Clinics, see more than 1.3 million patients each year.

The UW School of Medicine, part of the UW Medicine system, leads the internationally recognized, community-based WWAMI Program, serving the states of Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, Montana and Idaho. The UW School of Medicine has been ranked No. 1 in the nation in primary-care training for more than 20 years by U.S. News & World Report. School of Medicine faculty receive more than $1 billion per year in research funding, ranking it as the top public institution recipient of biomedical research funding from the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and second among all public and private institutions for NIH funding.
