Travel RN at Liquid Agents
Springfield, Missouri Area

Summary

Compassionate, energetic, forward thinking professional that participates and provides patient centered care to a patient population of medical and coronary events that require critical care.

I provide close observation of patient responses to life threatening situations. These patients include cardiopulmonary, vascular, gastrointestinal, nutritional, renal, surgical, neurological, metabolic and obstetrical patients requiring critical intervention and/or mechanical ventilation.

While implementing care in a knowledgeable, skillful, consistent manner, I also perform assessments/data collection in an ongoing and systematic manner, focusing on the physiologic, psychological and cognitive status of the patient. Formulating and following a goal directed plan of care which is prioritized and based on the medical or nursing diagnosis.
