Summary

Bilingual/Bicultural second-degree Cum Laude baccalaureate,
Board-Certified RN at NYP/CUIMC.

My experiences working with people have allowed me to acquire and develop excellent communication, social and interpersonal skills. Most importantly, these experiences have shifted my career goals into the wonderful field of Nursing, where I can serve a great purpose each and every day. My career allows me to provide compassionate, individualized nursing care for my patients and be more involved in the general welfare of people.

The ability to care for others and promote their health and well-being is substantially valuable for me. A career in Nursing allows me to help others and best meet their needs, providing direct patient care and support while offering a positive experience and striving to make a difference in people's lives.
