Erica Herreros BSN RN CCRN

Critical Care Registered Nurse at New York-Presbyterian Hospital
Greater New York City Area

Summary

Erica Herreros is a Bilingual (Spanish/English) BSN-RN CCRN in the Pediatric Cardiac ICU at Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital of New York.

Erica is a member of the National Association of Hispanic Nurses with the New York Chapter. She was nominated and elected to be a board member of the nomination committee for two years (2017-2019). She will recruit and prepare a slate of candidates, under strict, confidential protocols to be elected for the scheduled election period.

Erica also serves as chairwoman for the communications/ social media committee for the National Association of Hispanic Nurses for the New York chapter. The Chapter website www.NAHNNY.org and electronic pages on the internet are maintained and updated in order to recruit and retain members.

Erica volunteered with Heart Care International on a mission trip to Chiapas, Mexico. Alongside Heart Care, Erica was able to provide high quality and compassionate nursing care pro-bono to indigent children with heart disease.

Erica was a Guest Lecturer at Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing. She presented on Cardiac Conditions in the Pediatric Population and the Nursing considerations pertinent to taking care of this very vulnerable population.

Erica presented alongside Mr. Dan Suarez on Resume Writing and Interview Skills. Erica provided Nursing Students and Professional Nurses with many tips on how to successfully stand out during an interview process.

Erica presented in the nurse specialties panel for the Nursing Students' Association of New York State 65th and 66th Annual Conventions. She gave tips to nursing students on the importance of building your resume, interview skills and networking skills. She also shared her journey as a new graduate starting in the Pediatric Cardiac ICU.

Erica also presented in the 2016 annual NAHN Conference in Chicago, on the importance of leadership, mentorship and the power of the story.
