

Contact

cheewolf@aol.com

www.linkedin.com/in/pam-s-1999731b (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

CPOE

Informatics

Healthcare Information Technology

Pam St. Jarre

BSN, RN, CEN at Baylor Heart Hospital
Dallas/Fort Worth Area

Experience

The Heart Hospital Baylor Denton

RN - Emergency Department

February 2014 - Present (6 years 6 months)

Denton Regional Medical Center (subsidiary hospital of HCA)

RN - Emergency Department

May 2012 - February 2014 (1 year 10 months)

emergency department

Triage and care of patients (adult and pediatric) in the acute/critical care setting.

Throughput coordinator - responsible for ED patient flow management.

Instrumental in decreasing door-to-room times by assisting in implementing a rapid triage process. Played a vital role in utilizing staff efficiently and effectively to improve patient throughput times and patient/staff satisfaction.

Preceptor to new employees in the clinical setting.

Training employees on EHR documentation in the clinical setting with a focus on important items such as IVF start/stop times.

President of the Emergency Department Unit Practice Council - function as liaison to hospital leadership and hospital Nursing departments in order to continue the improvement of patient care and safety, with a focus placed on the ED setting.

Las Colinas Medical Center

RN - Emergency Department

September 2011 - May 2012 (9 months)

T-System

4 years 6 months

RN, Lead Clinical Analyst (Electronic Division)

April 2007 - September 2011 (4 years 6 months)

RN, Lead Trainer (Paper Division)

April 2007 - November 2007 (8 months)

Education

Northern College of Applied Arts and Technology

Diploma RN

The University of Texas at Arlington

BSN, College of Nursing and Health Innovations