New Graduate Registered Nurse Seeking Employment
New York

Summary

I am a highly energetic and organized new graduate Registered Nurse from New York University. I have experience in critical care through a nurse externship on a Step-Down unit at Hospital for Special Surgery and ICU shadowing at NYU Langone Tisch. I worked as a Patient Care Assistant at the Hospital for Special Surgery during my last year of nursing school. In addition, I have perioperative experience from working at a Surgery Center throughout college. I am passionate about volunteer work, as I have been on several medical mission trips to Montana, the Dominican Republic, and Honduras. My most enjoyable clinical rotation was pediatrics, and I have relevant experience with this patient population through nannying and working as a student teacher at my dance studio.

Although I am open to field of nursing, I have developed an interest in critical care and pediatric nursing from my clinical experiences. Please feel free to contact me at: sthunga@comcast.net for any further information.
