Jeff Dominguez BSN, RN, CCRN-K

Nurse Care Manager - Solid Organ Transplant at NewYork-
Presbyterian Hospital
New York, New York

Summary

Jeff is a capable, articulate Nurse Care Manager with strong executive presence. He is highly engaged in the Care Coordination department, hospital and the greater professional community; including holding the role of President of the NY Chapter of the National Association of Hispanic Nurses and attending American Case Management Association leadership programming. Jeff is active on the Nurse Care Coordination/ Social Work QA Committee and represents the Care Coordination department as a subject matter expert for the EPIC build and the QVENTUS artificial intelligence initiative at NewYork Presbyterian-Columbia.

Jeff is able to tailor his communication to the needs of his audience to ensure care is delivered in a timely and appropriate manner. His commitment to grassroots-driven systemic change is refreshing and empowers his colleagues. He approaches new experiences with curiosity and persistence; ensuring that he secures comprehensive high quality care and rare resources for his patients.

He is widely known as a skilled communicator and is recognized as a trusted professional nurse by his patients, colleagues and leaders. He is often called upon to represent the Care Coordination department in institution-wide and community settings. Jeff models collaboration across teams and disciplines.

He manages the care of patients from 3 different transplant teams, Lung, Liver and Renal and other surgical service lines. He has to tailor his communication style to the providers he is working with to facilitate timely and appropriate care. He is respectful and collaborative in all of these interactions and always re-centers the discussion on patient care and improving outcomes.

Jeff is able to build immediate rapport with colleagues, even in tense situations. He is an emotionally intelligent professional registered nurse who reads interpersonal dynamics to adjust his communication style appropriately.
