Natalie Tran

BSN Graduate seeking New Grad Residency Position
Greater Los Angeles Area

Summary

Highly compassionate and specialized BSN graduate. She is a member of the International Sigma Theta Tau Honor Society and a 7-time recipient of the Dean's List award for her academic excellence. During her clinical rotations, she strengthened her emergency-quality medical skills and provided compassion, along with communication skills among the medical team and patient's family through high quality patient-centered care. An achievement she is truly proud of is her strong continuous dedication in healthcare services. She previously held an in-home therapy position in behavioral health close to 2.5 years where she demonstrated outstanding leadership abilities, effective collaboration with the healthcare team, and application of complex problem solving skills.
