August/2014 to present - Loma Linda University Children's Hospital PICU.

The pediatric intensive care unit (PICU) at LLUCH is a 25-bed state-of-the-art facility serving the entire four-county Inland Empire containing a population of over four million. This bustling unit averages 110 admissions per month which provides residents with exposure to a vast variety of critical care patients.

Approximately one-half of the admissions are brought in by transport services, including ground vehicles, helicopters, and fixed-winged aircrafts.
