Summary

To see physical, emotional, and spiritual life transformation by optimizing organization mission and vision implementation. Any current or former organization I have had the honor of collaborating with impacts both local and global communities.

This summary is evidenced by my seven total years of advocating for and implementing best practices as a Registered Nurse in the critical care setting. Additionally, I have worked or volunteered for National Community Church in Washington, DC for three years where I encouraged, equipped, and empowered those affected by and passionate about social injustices (chronic homelessness, human trafficking, and inequitable access to healthcare and food). These experiences led to a pursuit and completion of a Masters of Divinity from Regent University with an emphasis in Marketplace Ministry (non-profit management).

This brief experience providing care in an urgent care setting was positive. I triaged approximately 75 patients a day with multitudes of chronic conditions and coincidentally acute exacerbations of those conditions. After a short time it was evident however that if working as a nurse the Critical Care setting was where I was meant to be. I therefore returned to the ICU at George Washington University Hospital.
