Sade Nichole

PRN Nurse at The Moses H. Cone Memorial Hospital
Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina Area

Summary

Dedicated, compassionate, highly motivated nurse possessing experience in bedside and clinical care, my training has equipped me with the necessary tools to promote any healthcare system's image. With developed organizational and tactile skills and the ability to take initiative and to give patients a proactive and responsive service, I am able to deliver effective health care. My ability to be empathetic, caring, an effective communicator, and an advocate for my patients is the strength of my leadership. Continuing to further my education and devotion to life-long learning will allow me to keep abreast of the ever changing world of healthcare. Supervisory and more than 4 years of customer service experience is an addition to what I can bring to any vicinity.
