Charito Vicencio MSN BSN CNOR

Empowers and coach team to provide excellent patient care with exceptional outcomes.

Houston, Texas Area

Summary

Working with incredibly bright people in the perioperative setting to end cancer. An educator by heart, I believe anything you put your heart into can be learned and having the tenacity to do so matters. I coach people to achieve their highest potential to provide the best possible care to all our patients. Always seeking ways to better patient experiences and outcomes.
